

Inquiry opens into wrecked freighter

Durban, Tuesday.—A preliminary inquiry opened here to-day into the case of the 5,155-ton Glasgow freighter, Forresbank, which ran aground on the Pondo Land coast south of here after catching fire on Sunday.

Meanwhile police have been asked to post guards near the wreck to prevent looting of the ship's cargo and stores, which are now in the custody of the Customs.—Reuter.

Inquiry Opens Into Wrecked Freighter

Clipped By:
C_St_Reed
Feb 24, 2025